Sharon Jones, Aramark- Winner of the THRIVE Dimensions Award for Spiritual Wellbeing

Sharon Jones regularly connects with each of her Aramark colleagues and colleagues in the office of the Chaplain to share words of encouragement, to offer prayer and a listening ear, and to share her love of poetry. She recently demonstrated her deep care for the well-being of the community by working with the office of the Chaplain to organize a memorial service for a colleague who died tragically. She purchased several sympathy cards for the colleague's family and shared them far and wide to provide a meaningful avenue for our community to express and process their grief. The office of the Chaplain knows of no other individual on campus who better exemplifies "Spiritual Wellbeing". We are so proud of Sharon and know she will continue to enrich and nourish the lives of those around her.
